Translation

In order to facilitate participation for catechists from other countries, the course will be translated into English. Catechists who have already completed the level III course will translate the content consecutively. This slower approach will give everyone the opportunity to listen and to take notes at their leisure. There will be separate groups in German and English for writing the album pages and practising the presentations. The course leaders will work with a microphone and loudspeaker. Audio recordings are possible.

Album pages

Each participant is responsible for writing a limited number of album pages. These are reviewed by the course leaders and collected. After the course, each participant receives the collection of all course album pages so that they can write their own personal album page at home.
